Re: United States of America v. Todd Dyer
Case No. 19-cv-1319

Dear Judge Pepper,

I write regarding defendant's January 17, 2020 Motion for Adjournment, in which defendant requested a "65 day adjournment" of the February 14, 2020 hearing. (ECF 27, p 1.)

Based on the representations of defendant's counsel provided in the affidavit in support of the motion, the United States does not oppose the motion, provided that (1) the temporary restraining order remains in effect until the rescheduled hearing date, (see ECF 20), and (2) all deadlines preceding the hearing date, including the deadline for motions in limine and the deadline for submitting a pretrial report, are extended commensurate with the new hearing date.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

MATTHEW D. KRUEGER
United States Attorney
